Happy Christmas

To all our readers

Thank you to all those who have made this year a happy one for the TRIANGLE crew and, we hope, our readers; to our advertisers who have helped to keep us on a financially steady course and to everyone on the delivery team for the effort they have put in over the year. Going from door to door for your contributions is time consuming. Issue 13, or should that be 12a, at the end of 2012 brings us all to the finish of a great year for team GB; the Diamond Jubilee, The Olympics & Para Olympics and Bradley Wiggins winning The Tour de France. Marvellous! Your front cover is thanks to Louise Hayes and her team of Adventurers. Sorry that we couldn't use all of your designs. My best wishes to you all. May Christmas and the New Year help bring you closer to all those that matter most to you.

Keith Buck.

Christmas Decorations.

If anyone would like to help decorate the Parish Church for Christmas then please come along on Saturday 22nd December from 10:30 to 11:30am. If you have any greenery or flowers to use, please bring them along as well. I will provide refreshments! (And maybe background carols to sing along to.)

Ann Wilson. Any queries call me on 628567. Thank you.

Pudding Time

Around 50 people attended the first 'Pudding Time' evening. The evening started with Trudy Carr giving a demonstration on how to make a Lemon Roulade. This was followed by the first sampler plate with three good-sized portions consisting of Orange Marmalade Bread & Butter Pudding, Lemon Roulade and Yorkshire Curd Pudding. Following a short break for refreshments, the second sampler of a further 3 portions of Sticky Toffee Pudding, Banoffee Pie and Chocolate Roulade was served. Some people in the know came with their doggy bags and others also took home what they couldn't eat. The general consensus was that the Bread & Butter pudding provided by Debbie Firby was the favourite one of the night. Altogether a very enjoyable evening with £427 made for the Village Hall funds. Congratulations to all committee members who provided the puddings and helped on the night. Looking forward to the next one!

Janet Clarke.

These annual events are run by two of our volunteers to raise funds for an Arboretum project.

Projects in 2013 will be the planting of broad leaf decorative trees and the laying of a new path network

One day, aged 45, I just went into the kitchen to make a cup of tea, and when I came out I found out I was 68.

Thora Hird.

My Twelve Days of Christmas

On the first day of Christmas my true love said to me,
"I'm glad we bought a fresh turkey and a real Christmas tree".

On the second day of Christmas much laughter could be heard,
As we tucked into our turkey, a most delicious bird.

On the third day we entertained the people from next door,
The turkey tasted good, just like the day before.

Day four: relations came to stay; poor Gran is looking old,
We finished up the Christmas pud and ate the turkey cold.

On the fifth day of Christmas outside the snow flakes flurried,
But we were nice and warm inside, for we had our turkey curried.

On the sixth day I must admit the Christmas spirit died.
The children fought and bickered, so we ate our turkey rissoles fried.

On the seventh day of Christmas my true love she did wince.
She sat down at the table and was offered turkey mince.

Day eight and nerves are getting frayed; the dog had run for shelter.
So I served up turkey pancakes with a glass of Alka Seltzer.

On day nine our cat had left home, by lunch time dad was blotto.
He said he had to have a drink, to face even more turkey risotto.

By the tenth day the booze had gone, except for our home brew,
And if that wasn't bad enough, we suffered turkey stew.

On the eleventh day of Christmas, the Christmas tree was moulting.
The mince pies were hard as rock, the turkey was revolting.

On the twelfth day of Christmas my true had a smile upon her lips.
The guests had gone the turkey too, so we dined on fish and chips.

There is to be a Christmas lunch outing to Bridlington Golf Club on Thursday 6th December, and the menu was circulated. Shelagh introduced the speaker Michael Brown, a retired Police Superintendent, who gave lots of amusing anecdotes and stories of events that had happened during his service. Tea and biscuits were served by Stella Hutton and Nancy Coates.

What do you call a woman with screw driver in one hand, a knife in the other, a pair of scissors between the toes on her left foot, and corkscrew between the toes of her right foot?

A Swiss army wife.

NEW ASHES BURIAL AREA IN ALL SAINTS CHURCHYARD.

A new ashes burial area has been laid out on a small area of the churchyard to the north side of the church building. This will accommodate about 45 plots, and is likely to be the last area for which permission will be granted, as there are no more suitable spaces available. The churchyard was closed for coffin burials many years ago.

The new area has been allowed by the Diocese of York on condition that only sandstone marker slabs are used. These will be set into the ground and inscriptions put on them as required. No marble of any colour can be allowed.

The area chosen is a quiet and peaceful area and it has been suggested that it would be appropriate to have a seat overlooking the new plot, for use by relatives of the deceased and other visitors to the churchyard. The Church Council is aiming to commission a new oak seat for this purpose and is seeking donations from anyone who would like to contribute. It will cost £500. If you would like to help please put your donation in an envelope marked 'churchyard seat' and post it through the door of Porch House, The Green or give it in person to Maurag Carmichael.

Some people have expressed an interest in reserving a plot in the new area. This is not essential to be sure of a place, but those who wish may do so any time. Please contact the Churchwarden, Ann Wilson on 01653 628567 if you would like to find out more.

We have had an up and down start to the season. We are currently fifth in the league table (up to 19/11/12) and have been knocked out of all the cups. Hopefully we can push on up to Christmas and, in the second half of the season, mount a promotion charge. Runaway leaders, Ryedale Reserves, look like they could be out of reach but the second promotion place is up for grabs. All our new players have settled in well. Those players with long term injuries are close to returning and that will make the Slingsby Team even stronger for the second half of the season.
