Fred Whitton Sportive

The Fred Whitton Challenge consists of a 112 mile cycle sportive around the Lake District, starting at Grasmere and taking in climbs of Kirkstone, Honister, Newlands, Whinlatter, Hardknott and Wrynose passes. As the name suggests, it is run in honour of Fred Whitton.

This ride, possibly the toughest one day event in the UK, has over 3,000 metres (9,900 feet) of climbing!

On Sunday, 7th May, Church Lane cyclist, Brendon Smurthwaite started and finished this event. A sub eight hour ride for a first attempt would be good. Brendon took eight hours and twelve seconds!! He was still walking and smiling when I saw him on the Monday after the ride. Well done that man!

And the year is....

In Issue 7 of the Yellow Pages, Keith set a challenge to our readers, which was to date the photograph of the Village Green that was sent in by Geoff Brook, and the mystery has now been solved!

Thank you to Anne Holtby for getting in touch with The Triangle and providing the date of the photograph as the Summer of 1994. Anne purchased this photograph as it was a good aerial view of her yard with the coaches at Perry's coach yard on.

Thank you Anne!

Congratulations George and Shirley Wright

George and Shirley Wright from Railway Street, Slingsby, will celebrate their Diamond (60th) Wedding Anniversary on June 22nd 2017.

George and Shirley married at All Saints, Slingsby on June 22nd 1957. Following the wedding they went to Blackpool for a week's honeymoon.

Both George and Shirley came from Fryton. George worked as a farm-hand for Prest's for over 50 years, while Shirley helped Prest's in the home and occasionally picking potatoes.

They have two children. Their son, Paul, lives in Australia with his wife, Kate and their children, Emma and Becky. Their daughter, Bev, lives in Malton with her husband, Paul and their children, Lee and Zoë. Every winter, when it's cold here, George and Shirley like to visit their family in Australia, when it's summer there of course. They admit it can be something of a shock when they arrive back home and it's freezing cold!

Now both retired, George loves gardening. You can tell that from the wonderfully colourful display, which never fails to brighten up Railway Street. It seems some Slingsby non-gardeners watch what George does and then copy it themselves! He also likes bowling and is a member of the local bowls team. Shirley also enjoys bowling, although hip operation last year somewhat curtailed her club appearances. They have a lovely conservatory behind the house, where they like to read and keep up with the family via Facebook.

Let's hope they carry on having many more happy years together. Congratulations George and Shirley!

Slingsby Ladies' Group

At our April meeting we were very pleased to welcome four new ladies to our group, three from Cavendish Court and one from Barton Le Street. The speaker for the evening was Sandra Piercey who is well known for her sewing skills and is a devotee of quilting. She brought a beautiful display of her handiwork including quilts, pictures, wall hangings and chair back covers, some of which are in regular use, others are being made for charities. She often visits conventions in America, where quilting originated, exchanging patterns and ideas worldwide.

In May there was an evening outing to the very natural garden of Jeff Andrews where tea and cakes were served. We were also shown around his collection of memorabilia which he had collected over his years as a furniture dealer. After days of cloudy, cool weather the wind had dropped and the evening was sunny and warm helping to make it a very enjoyable outing.

The next meeting will be on Tuesday 13th June at 7.15pm when Julie Ryan will be talking about the International Rescue Corps of which she is a member. Anyone interested is welcome to join us.

From Ilkley Moor to the North Yorks Moors (almost!)

I was fortunate enough to grow up in a rural, unspoilt part of God's Own County in Burley-in-Wharfedale, Ilkley (or Olicana as the Romans called it) at the foothills of Ilkley Moor where the folk called a spade a spade, but everyone had time for each other and there was a wonderful sense of community especially amongst the churches. Not to mention the sense of peace when you ventured out for a wander into the fields or through the woods (Catton Woods to be precise) where there were plenty of fairy doors to be found, or in my later school years, plenty of inspiration for all of my studies, in particular my Art A-level although there were also plenty of interesting people around when it came to my psychology one too but that's a different story!

Ilkley Moor Bah Tat

When I was 19 I packed up my belongings and ventured off in search of new adventures to the glorious city of York which I love for many reasons but especially its colourful history throughout the ages. It was from living in the suburbs of York and venturing out on days out to explore north of The Wall that I came across the Howardian Hills. I had visited the North Yorkshire Moors on various occasions as a child but I found a new sense of awe and appreciation of the landscape seeing it as an adult.

Fast forward a few years and I was introduced to a quaint village pub called 'The Grapes' by my father-in-law, in a village that I'd never heard of before. Needless to say Oliver (my partner) and I visited the pub, Slingsby and neighbouring villages a fair few more times and it was on one of these visits that we happened to learn about the Cavendish Vale development and we knew that we needed to do some investigation into buying one of the properties!

There are many reasons why we set our hearts on moving to Slingsby, from the sense of community that we felt on our visits to The Grapes and also that it brought back many happy childhood memories for me growing up in a similar rural area and we wanted our two boys to have the same upbringing. Luckily everything went smoothly and we have now been living in our family home in Cavendish Court since February.

Slingsby and its residents have not disappointed and being a self-confessed history lover, I found it fascinating that there was a historical meaning why the street that we now live on got its name "Cavendish". I started to learn more about it when my co-editor David, invited me along to the Local History Group weekend in March in the Village Hall where I noticed the Cavendish coat of arms on the wall. Margaret Mackinder has kindly provided me with some information about the Cavendish family...

The Cavendish family at Slingsby

The construction of new large private country houses took off in the 16th century, built from profits of coal and agriculture, on land, which had been confiscated from the monasteries and redistributed by Henry VIII. The Cavendish family developed some of the most impressive houses of the time, mainly centred on the East Midlands. The manor lands and ruined medieval castle at Slingsby was bought by Sir Charles Cavendish (1553-1617) in 1594. He was the 5th of eight sons from the second marriage of Bess of Hardwick, the Countess of Shrewsbury. She amassed great wealth through her four marriages and built Hardwick Hall in Derbyshire, the most impressive and fashionable house of the age.

Sir Charles lived mainly at Welbeck Abbey, but also began to develop a new house based on an older castle at Bolsover, not far from Hardwick. It was not unusual then to be building several large properties at the same time. Attracted by the moated castle site in Slingsby, he commissioned a design for a new building from the most distinguished master builder / architect of the day, Robert Smythson. Sir Charles died before building started and it is recorded that the ruined medieval castle was still in place in 1611.

It's all fascinating work and I look forward to finding out more about the history of the village over the forthcoming years. Thank you from us all at 10 Cavendish Court to the village for being so welcoming.

A tribute to the life of James (Jim) Collier.

Born in Wigan, Jim was the son of a miner but his parents weren't keen on him going down the pit, so his first job was in a warehouse. From there it was to Coventry, as teaboy for a demolition firm, working his way up to become a heavy machinery operator. When war came in 1939 Jim's work included clearing bomb damage and building runways for the Royal Air Force. He was then moved to Birmingham and then onto Liverpool with the Luftwaffe following him.

Though in a 'Reserved Occupation' Jim was keen to join up and tried the Royal Navy first. They thought his job skills better suited to the Army! His first posting was to Hunmaby and then on to Welburn. One of his jobs was to bring officers and staff to a cottage (on the corner of The Green and High Street, now demolished) in Slingsby. Here he first met his future wife Dorothy Trenholme, see front cover of Triangle No 21. She lived in one of the four, then new Hill Crest houses at the top of High Street.

A demobbed Jim and Dorothy were married in Slingsby on 25th May 1945 and seventy years later in 2016 celebrated their 'Platinum' wedding anniversary, still at Hill Crest!

Jim's whole working life was spent either driving or working outside. He worked in the sandpit, now Robin Hood's Caravan Park, at H. M. Richardson's haulage yard, now Cavendish Court and finally for B. A. T. A. as a tanker driver. His sporting love was rugby league as two members of his family played for Wigan, Widnes and England.

Jim and Dorothy have two sons, Ken and Brian, four grandchildren and six great grandchildren.

Walk to Fryton

Down the lane I breathe the air,
The fair wind blowing.
A sense of joy rising up,
Endorphins flowing.
Free to wander, stop and chat;
Free to muse on this and that.
Meandering along the track,
The ditch richly growing,
Meadowsweet abundant there,
Ragged Robin shakes his hair,
Bindweed overflowing.
Bullrushes are coming through,
Himalayan Balsam too,
Giant Hogweed setting seed
And I contented sigh.
Lush the green potato fields,
Pollinators droning.
Clouds float through a sea of blue,
Willow trees groaning.
Sheep munch and cattle bunch
To watch my lazy stride
Through the wooded tunnel
Where muddy puddles hide.
Out into the light again
And down across the trickling stream,
Through the bearded barley there
And golden sun's beam.
Swallows dip, swoop and play;
I continue on my way
Looking for the owls today;
Disappointment only.
Horses rip the grass, then puffing
Waft their tetchy tails
And at the kissing gate I wait
As evening pales.

Easter News

Our Easter breakfast went very well once again and was well supported. It was particularly pleasing to be able to use the new kitchen.

The service which followed was a true family occasion conducted in house and went very well. It was great to have so many children present. Tom Hayes played the keyboard for most of the hymns and concluded by playing his trumpet for "Thine be the glory." Before the service people helped to decorate the cross outside with flowers to denote the new life of the resurrection.

Decorating the Easter Cross. Picured (l-r): Rachel Prest, Karen Bishop and Yvonne North.

The Prest Family and Betty the Horse rolling Easter eggs

We are pleased to report that the new kitchen at the chapel is now fitted and looking very good. We are just waiting for the re-decoration to be done and a new floor covering to be laid to complete the job.

The kitchen gets very well used these days. We provide refreshments after every service and Soupa Lunch once a month, when we offer delicious soups, sandwiches and a pudding to anyone, but particularly the elderly and those who live alone. We also do Teaspot on the first Thursday of the month and our facilities are used for providing refreshments around Mayday as well as for many other activities.

In order to raise some funds for the project we had a Gift Day on Saturday 25th Feb. We had already received many donations before the day so I wasn't expecting a great deal more on the day itself, however the morning was a great success, raising an amazing £4,109. We are very grateful indeed for this wonderful response and a very sincere thank you to all who gave. If we raise enough money we shall also redecorate the schoolroom and put a new carpet down.

180th Anniversary. The main Chapel building was built in 1837 so this year we are celebrating our 180th Anniversary. We are also joining with the Parish Church for some joint celebrations as they are celebrating their 150th Anniversary but we are also having a special weekend as noted in the 'Diary Dates'. As part of our celebrations we are having a Summer Concert by The Terrington Choir on Saturday 8th July at 7pm in The Chapel. We invite you to join us for a memorable evening. Refreshments will be served at the end.

High Street? Yuk Street!

The amount of dog faeces on the High Street is at an all-time high. For some residents their first daily chore is to declagg outside their homes.

Parents with young children walking this route, I'm sure, do not enjoy the task of cleaning up their youngster who may have trod or fallen in one of the many s---t heaps to be found on both foot path and the verge. As this mess was occurring before the visitor season got underway, it is down to Slingsby dog owners.

Got a Smart phone? If you see the offender, take a pic and email it to Ryedale Council.

Dementia Awareness Event

Saturday 10th June – 2pm to 4pm at Slingsby Chapel.

Dementia is an increasing presence in many of our lives and churches. Colleen Allwood (the wife of Martin Allwood, the local vicar) works with the Alzheimer's Society and will be leading the event.

The aim of the event is to increase awareness as both individuals and churches and how we can be equipped to welcome and meet the needs of people with Dementia. A key element of the church service is music and song in praise time, and it is now known that music can have a very positive effect on Dementia sufferers, changing their mood from bleak and depressive to full of life and smiling again. The late neurologist Oliver Sacks said: "Music evokes emotion and emotion can bring with it memory... it brings back the feeling of life when nothing else can."

When supporting a person with Dementia, it can be helpful for carers to have an understanding of the impact that the condition has on that person. This includes understanding how the person might think and feel, as these things will affect how they behave.

There are currently around 850,000 people in the UK with Dementia. It mainly affects people over the age of 65 (one in 14 people in this age group have dementia), and the likelihood of developing Dementia increases significantly with age. However, Dementia can affect younger people too. There are more than 42,000 people in the UK under 65 with Dementia (Alzheimer's Society, 2017).

All who have an interest will be welcome and tasty summer treats will be provided.

The event is free and can be booked through Louise Hayes either by email louisehayes849@gmail.com or by telephone on 01653 628064

Twiddle Muffs

'Twiddle Muffs' are a knitted muff with items attached so that dementia sufferers and those with autism can twiddle and give their carer's a moment of 'me' time.

Yorkshire Country Women are having a display of them at The Ryedale Show on the 25th of July which will be held in Welburn Park, Kirkbymoorside, starting at 8.30am. After which they will be distributed to those who need them across Yorkshire.

They are easy to make and an excellent way of using up any oddments of wool, ribbon, buttons etc.

Ryedale Festival returns to Slingsby in July

The Ryedale Festival returns to bring us late-night candlelit Mozart on Wednesday 26th July at 9.45pm in All Saint's Church.

General booking is open, so, after last year's sell-out, we suggest you get your tickets now.

This time the festival will be bringing us leading instrumentalists playing Mozart in different moods: a violin sonata with a melancholy air, the playful and lyrical sonata for bassoon and cello, and an extrovert piano trio overflowing with ideas. This late-night concert also features Beethoven's homage to a genius: an irresistible set of variations on a famous theme from Mozart's Magic Flute.

For full details of all Ryedale Festival events (14-30 July) and how to book, please visit the Ryedale Festival website: www.ryedalefestival.com

A tribute to Nancy Strouhair
1932 – 2017

Regular Triangle subscribers will recall that we printed a small piece about Nancy when she left Slingsby to live in a Scarborough Care Home in 2014. Sadly, Nancy passed away on 16th March 2017.

“Mum and Dad (Derek) and family moved to Slingsby in 1970. Originally Dad worked at Lofthouse Colliery, near Wakefield and Mum was a midwife and nurse for a number of years. Unfortunately Dad passed away in 1987 and Mum moved into her bungalow in Green Crescent, where villagers will remember her as a frequent walker with her dogs. She loved dogs and always made a fuss of any that were passing.”

“Mum was always a busy member of the community. In the early part of their time in the village they started and ran the Youth Club. Also, both were avid bowls players. She was a member of Slingsby Church and Mothers’ Union. Many villagers will remember her for her performances in the pantomimes, particularly her ‘Wilson, Keppel and Betty’ sand- dance routine, performed with her daughter, my sister, Julie! Mum had a good sense of fun.”

“Mum spent three happy years in the Care Home but died suddenly. I would like to thank everyone, family, friends and villagers, who sent over 30 cards, reflecting what a popular lady she was.”

Helmsley Wines

Ribera Del Duero

Ribera del Duero is a Spanish Denominación de Origen (DO) located in the country's northern plateau. It is also one of several recognised wine-producing regions to be found along the course of the Duero river. Ribera del Duero has been increasing in popularity over the last decade thanks mainly to more smaller production family run sites than the mass production zone of Rioja. In 2012 it was named Wine Region of the Year 2012 by the prestigious Wine Enthusiast Magazine.

Quinta Milu

Ribera del Duero is an area known for big reputations, big wines and big oak influence which are sometimes too heavy for most people's palates. So we were pleased to come across winemaker Germán Blanco, a young winemaker who is championing a fresher style of Tinto del Pais (the local name for Tempranillo).

Blanco calls his project a 'micro-winery' and it is a true family business, based around the village of La Aguilera in the Burgos province. He works in very old vineyards which work to organic and biodynamic principles, many of which are planted at over 900 metres above sea level. German makes his elegant, fruit-forward wines using foot-treading, wild yeast fermentation and minimal handling. All of his wines share a delicious rusticity, purity of fruit, and incredible freshness.

Quinta Milu Tempranillo is aged in 500 litre old French and American barrels for 6 months before being bottled unfinned, unfiltered, and with minimal additions of sulphur. The result is a vibrant wine full of ripe dark fruits, black cardamom, liquorice and peppery spices. The oak gives a lovely vanilla finish with balanced acidity and supple tannins.

Great news for the Parents of Ryedale....

I have some very exciting news to share – after much demand from the parents of Ryedale we now have a Ryedale Mumbler!

I am SJ and I have started an online parenting community to provide support, reassurance and up to date information on events, days out, weekly classes as well as offers, recommendations, trusted tradesman and reviews.

SJ with son, Henry and daughter, Eliza.

I am mum to Henry (4.5 years) and Eliza (2 years), living just outside Malton and I am enthusiastic to bring Mumbler to Ryedale. The Mumbler Group has been such a success over the past 5 years having been started in Harrogate by Sally Haslewood and now spreading across the country. I was brought up on the Wolds but moved away after university, eventually persuading my husband that this was where we needed to be! Moving to Ryedale, I soon realised how tricky it is to get to know the simple, child related things. I quickly saw the need for a more local Mumbler than York, to bring this information and the valuable support network to parents, carers and grandparents in the area.

Mumbler was brilliant when I had Eliza, there is always someone that's going through the same phase and or has recently conquered it! During those night feeds, knowing that there was someone else local on Facebook via York Mumbler was a massive comfort! Ryedale is a fantastic place to raise a family. There are lots of great places to visit and things to do within Ryedale or within a short car ride. I just want to help other parents, carers and visitors find those hidden gems!

The Ryedale Mumbler Chat Group and the Ryedale Mumbler News Page are up and running on Facebook, gaining momentum all the time. The website is in progress and due to launch in June with many competitions for people to enter by finding things on the website.

On Saturday 24th June 10am-12noon, I am organising a Nearly New Sale at Malton School. Parents can buy and sell children's clothes, toys and nursery items. If you are interested in a table, please get in contact by email rydale@mumbler.co.uk

All Saints Church History Tour

There was an excellent turnout of around 35 people for the All Saints talk and tour on May 6th.

Firstly, coffee and cake was very welcome as the weather was extremely cold. All refreshments donations will go towards the church roof appeal.

Dr. Dav Smith from the University of York Dept. of Archaeology gave us a very enthusiastic talk into the church's history and the reasons for its re-building. The old church was closed 150 years ago on May Day 1867 due to its poor structural condition. Reconstruction was paid for by Admiral Howard, creating the new Victorian church as we see it today.

Secondly Chris Churches gave a talk about the Wyville Knight, the medieval effigy in the south east corner of the church. Chris is obviously very knowledgeable on this feature.

Dr. Kate Giles then conducted a tour of the outside of the church, although the weather was very cold. It's surprising what you don't notice even when you walk past it every day.

Finally Margaret Mackinder talked about the tower, the corona and the two original pillars. Even if you're not a regular churchgoer it was an informative morning about a very important village building with loads of history.

Slingsby May Day Festival

Monday 1st May 2017

The sun shone, and the wind dropped as tired folks streamed home from Slingsby on May Day. For two days, the village had buzzed as people walked round the scarecrow trail, and enjoyed tea or coffee in the Methodist schoolroom. The scarecrow trail was organized by FOSS, and there were 27 scarecrows on display, all to a very high standard (like the Incredible Hulk – literally!).

Then, on Bank Holiday Monday, the day started early with a car boot sale on the sport's field. This was followed by a full programme of activities on the village green. The Swinton Brass Training Band started proceedings, and Malton School Jazz Band rounded off the day. In between there was the traditional Maypole dancing by all the children from Slingsby School.

The ribbon dancers wove the ribbons into intricate patterns and, more importantly, undid them faultlessly. The younger dancers performed their three dances which they had been learning in their PE lessons. They were then joined by the ribbon dancers for the final dance together. The Minster Stray Morris dancers completed the programme with their sticks, bells and shouts, including some of the children in one of the dances.

Around the edge of the green, and in the village hall, there were various craft stalls and demonstrations of weaving and chair seating: games for children, car full of balloons, and even an old "Rusty" tractor. Teas, pulled pork sandwiches, and ice-creams were available all afternoon.

One blot on the weekend occurred when a very distasteful 'scarecrow' (numbered 5C) was left outside a front door in Railway Street on Saturday night. This was in poor taste and caused considerable sadness in an otherwise happy time.

Thank you to all who came and enjoyed the day, but especially a big thank you to all helped make the day a success. We hope to continue this quintessential English May Day festival next year, but we do need the help of many more volunteers to make the day possible.

Teas and Tombola on May Day

A huge thank you to all who supported All Saints Church at the Slingsby May Day Celebrations, to those who generously donated tombola prizes, to those who baked beautiful cakes and super savouries and to those who helped in other ways - thank you!

The display of cakes and savouries was fantastic and consumed with great enthusiasm along with over 350 cups of tea and coffee. Our stalls of teas, plants, crafts and tombola raised over £1,200 which is a great boost to our Roof Repair fund. Thank you everyone.

VIP Corner - An Interview with Tony Hodgson by Kay Hill

Born in Slingsby, following his parents move here to take up employment in 1943, a cottage in Railway Street provided the perfect start in what was to become a life dedicated to improving life for Slingsby residents. Tony even found love here too, marrying a local woman.

Family consists of his wife, son, daughter and 3 grandchildren.

Friends are counted as being the entire village!

Tony Hodgson, as a boy

Likes consist of DIY, however before we book his services Tony stresses it's only to his own property!

Dislikes include Sport - Tony has watched one serious game of football, the World Cup in 1966! There is no doubt that anything else would pale in comparison, we all know England won by a decisive victory, with the now famous 'it is now' quote.

Social life is non-existent for Tony, as he starts work at 5am, meaning early nights and no gadding about.

Memories are somewhat bittersweet. A major disappointment was the loss of the sub post office, despite it being viable as well as dominating the area alongside its Terrington counterpart. At one time, there was a prospect of national news covering the story of how, not once - but twice - the local sub postmaster's intervention saved lives. The sub post office was the place where residents collected their pensions and posted their letters, and being creatures of habit an eagle eyed Tony would spot if someone was missing. On two occasions the pensioner was found to be in great difficulty, but rescued just in time. Unfortunately, the powers that be in the Post Office disallowed the prospect of a televised report. To give us an idea of how vital a role the sub post office played, one very grateful Slingsby resident compiled a comprehensive article, in 2005, which demonstrated the various strands of residents lives positively benefiting from it. The accolade won a prize! A fonder memory for Tony is of the 14 months spent preparing Wyville Hall, their marital home, prior to moving in.

When asked what he liked most about running the village shop, Tony replied 'meeting the customers is the best bit, keeping informed, and being able to assist others.' I personally think of Tony as being the 'Google of Slingsby'!

Tony Hodgson, the 'Google of Slingsby'!

I think as readers you will agree with me in saying Tony truly is a treasure, and we are very lucky to have him in our midst. It is often said that no one is indispensable, however I think I have met the man who is.

Slingsby flower and garden weekend 23rd-25th June 2017

Slingsby Church was the subject of repeated burglaries at the end of 2016 when most of the lead was stripped from the roof, causing major water damage. It will take around £150,000 to repair and the local community has to raise at least £15,000 to support other sources of funding.

2017 also marks the 150th Anniversary of the rebuilding of Slingsby Church. 2017 also marks the 180th anniversary of the building of Slingsby Chapel. To mark these significant anniversaries and to raise funds towards the repair of the church roof we are planning a grand flower festival and open gardens weekend.

Friday 23rd June - The festival opens with a concert in All Saints Church, Slingsby featuring - Malton School Jazz Band and our nationally known local soprano - Jane Goldsmith and Slingsby School Choir. Wine and canapés will be served from 6.30pm and the concert starts at 6.45 pm.

Tickets £5.00 are available from the Village Shop and must be bought in advance. This concert is kindly being sponsored by Hardcastle France.

Saturday 24th June - 10.30am. to 4.00pm.
Flower festival in Church and Chapel.

The floral displays in the Church will be created by members of the Malton and District Flower Club and will depict village life past and present. The arrangements in the Chapel will be created by a group of our talented local flower arrangers and will depict Methodism in the Community.

Tickets £3.00 for both venues - can be purchased at the church.

Sunday 25th June 10.30 a.m. to 4.00 p.m.

Flower festival continues in church and chapel.
Tickets £3.00

The Open gardens programme takes place from 1pm – 5pm when around 15 gardens will be open to explore and enjoy.

Ticket for Open Gardens only (with map for access)
£4.00

Joint ticket for Open Gardens and Flower Festival
£6.00

Teas will be served in the village hall throughout the afternoon. Where there will also be a display of art by local children.

The weekend will finish with a joint church/chapel service at 6.30pm in All Saints Church, preacher The Bishop of Selby.

Car parking throughout the weekend is available on the Village Sports Field (beside the church) by kind permission of Slingsby Sports and Social Club.

The organisers hope to raise around £4,000 over the weekend to kick start the fundraising for this vitally important work. Slingsby Church is recognised by the National Historic Churches Trust as a Grade II* listed building worth preserving and it plays a pivotal role in village life.

Morning Walk on Saturday 3rd June to examine the flora of Slingsby. The Slingsby area was once renowned for its wildflowers and variety of other plants in the hedgerows. Sadly that time has long gone, but Simon Conyers, who is a professional botanist with expertise in wildflower meadows and their conservation and promotion, will help us to identify what can still be found, so we can update the records.

Meet 10am on Slingsby Green when we shall walk up to the top of Fryton Lane for 10:30am start. Wear comfortable footwear for walking (and mud).

July meeting – please note that there will not be a meeting in July.

August Meeting - Thursday 10th August, Daytime trip to the Borthwick Institute for Archives at the University of York to discover what is held there about Slingsby. There are up to 20 places available so advance booking is necessary. If you were not at the last evening meeting in April and have not already asked to have your name put on the list please contact:

When you have been away on holiday or even away for a day, it is always a real delight when approaching Slingsby through Castle Howard, to reach the top of the Sheepwalk and look across the beautiful Vale of Ryedale. I sometimes think why did we bother going away, Ryedale on a sunny day is fantastic.

In late April as I write this, one thing that strikes you are the vibrant yellow fields of oilseed rape (OSR) and there seems to be more than ever this year. In fact the area being grown in the UK is up 6% at around 1.8 million acres. It is a very valuable crop and prices have risen sharply to over £350 per tonne.

Oilseed rape has many uses and is used as mayonnaise, in margarine, salads, and enhancing vegetables such as broccoli, cauliflower and cabbage too. It also has many health benefits, having lower levels of saturated fat than other cooking oils, is high in omega-3 and Vitamin E, and some even claim that it is better than sunflower oil. The oil also has some high profile fans, with chefs James Martin, Hugh Fearnley-Whittingstall and Jamie Oliver said to be converts to the rapeseed revolution. It is also used as fuel and is added to road fuel at around 5% concentrations.

Oilseed rape is a very good "break crop" and is usually followed by a crop of high yielding winter wheat. It is also good for beekeepers and provides lots of honey early in the season. OSR is not good news for everyone, however, especially those who suffer from hayfever.
