1. Apologies for Absence

Cllr Farnell and Cllr Lange

2. NYP Rural Crime Team – PCSO Andrew Birkinshaw

PCSO Birkinshaw gave a presentation on the work of the Rural Crime Team in North Yorkshire.

The Chief Constable set up this new team 12 months ago to tackle rural crime in North Yorkshire. There are 7 teams in North Yorkshire which include a PC and PCSO.

Theft from farms, quad bikes and poaching are issues in Ryedale. The Rural Crime Team have made 101 arrests in the first year.

ANPR (automatic number plate recognition) is one of the ways NYP are catching people who are committing crime in Ryedale.

Operation Woollen is a new scheme which involves a member of the Rural Crime Team carrying out a survey on your property.

PCSO Andy Birkinshaw presented the new NYP property marking equipment. The equipment marks the property with a serial number, the owner of the property then registers their item and serial number on Immobilise.com. The equipment can mark plastic, metal, glass also horse tack.

PCSO Birkinshaw offered to attend an event in the village, where residents can bring along their equipment for marking.

If you have a business, please contact PCSO Birkinshaw direct on Mobile: 07825 378388, Email: Andrew.birkinshaw@northyorkshire.pnn.police.uk
