Recommend approval

21.23 Potential Extension to the Cemetery – Castle Howard Estate

Cllr Wilson to look through the archives to ascertain if any burial space is available in the original part of the cemetery.

James Holliday confirmed that Castle Howard would look favourable at allocating additional burial ground as and when required, subject to approval from the current tenant.

21.24 Parish Items

(a) Maypole Maintenance

The Clerk received a quote from Decorators of Distinction for the repainting of the maypole at a cost of £1,100. John Breckon kindly agreed to project manage the repainting of the maypole and obtain further quotes for the Parish Council to consider.

(b) All Saints Church, Slingsby Celebratory Weekend Sponsorship – 28th-30th August 2021

Members agreed to contribute £25.00 towards the flowers at the event.

(c) Street Light Maintenance Programme

Clerk to liaise with NYCC Street Lighting to get an update on outstanding street light maintenance in the village. Outstanding work includes replacing two lamp columns on The Balk to LED and installation of a shade on a lamp column on Railway Street.

(d) Highways Issues

1. Clerk to report blocked drains from opposite Wath quarry entrance to the bus stop near Fryton cross roads to NYCC Highways.
2. Chair to report a deep pot hole on the road just out of Slingsby towards Malton.

(e) Village Maintenance

The clerk to report the footpath at the top East Side Railway Street which requires further attention after top dressing has been carried out.

(f) Cemetery Maintenance

1. Cllr Wilson and Chair to carry out an inspection of the cemetery following maintenance work that has recently been carried out.
2. Chair to circulate the Dales of Thirsk headstone survey to Members who will work with the local community to ensure the headstones are repaired.

(g) Dog Fouling

The Clerk installed two replacement of signs on the village green which seems to have reduced the incidents of dog fouling in this location.

(h) Castle Howard Properties

James Holliday gave a verbal update on the Castle Howard maintenance schedule for properties in Slingsby.

(i) Neighbourhood Plan

Members to discuss this again at the September meeting.

(j) Footpath Bridge

A village resident has kindly offered to carry out the necessary repairs.

(k) Additional Parish Field Fencing

Thank you to Cllr Dickinson for repairing and renewing parts of the fencing.

It was agreed that the Chair liaise with the tenant with regard to replacing the section of fencing next to the stables.
